Bournemouth Directions

By Car From London: Take the M3 Southbound, then the M27 West. The M27 will turn into the A31. Turn off the A31 on to the A338 just after Ringwood, signposted Bournemouth. Do not take the A338 to Salisbury which is a sign posted earlier as you pass through Ringwood. Once on the A338, don't turn off the dual carriageway. You will come to a roundabout after about 10 miles, take the first exit/filter signposted for the train station. At the next roundabout take the fourth exit (turning back on yourself) and then turn left into Oxford Road. 21 Oxford Road has large green signs outside "HGW" and "Harold G Walker". The Modrus entrance is at the side of the building, do not use the front Harold G Walker reception or visitors spaces. There are a number of car parks very close by.

By Train: Modrus is 2 mins walk or a £3 cab ride from Bournemouth train station. For personalised directions call Modrus 020 3371 6666
